

Ethical Issues in Palliative and End of Life Care

One day tele-education session

Facilitator: Dr Janet Holt is an Associate Professor in Healthcare Ethics in the School of Healthcare, University of Leeds, with extensive experience of teaching and researching healthcare ethics and nursing philosophy. A consultant editor for the journal, Nursing Ethics, Janet represents the RCN on the British Medical Association Ethics Committee.

Major ethical issues in palliative and end of life care will be explored with reference to key contemporary cases.

Discussion will include:

- the significance of death and the sanctity and value of life
- ethical and legal debate concerning withdrawing and withholding life-prolonging treatment

Target Audience:

Healthcare professionals working with patients with palliative and end of life care needs.

Date: Tuesday 1st November 2022

Time: 10.00am to 15.30pm

Cost: £40 per person

Please book your place on the study day by completing the booking form and return to: AUPCcourses@st-gemma.co.uk

You will require access to a PC/laptop with microphone and camera to access the training online. Details for joining will be sent out prior to the session.

Booking forms can be downloaded from our website:
www.st-gemma.co.uk/professional-development